

Table of contents

Prologue / 9

By Roberto Bissio

MEASURING PROGRESS

Information poverty / 12

About the methodology / 16

Statistics showing country by country progress toward social development goals / 22

Progress or regressions in the fulfilment of the Copenhagen goals / 46

Gender gap evolution / 50

Changes in public expenditure / 52

Trends of the Official Development Assistance / 54

Table of signatures and ratifications of international treaties mentioned in the Millennium Declaration / 55

Signature and ratification of key international agreements / 57

Table of ratifications of fundamental ILO Conventions / 59

THEMATIC REPORTS

Illuminating the dark corners of the financial system / 62

By Marina Ponti & Federica Biondi

Building ownership of antipoverty strategies / 64

By Rob Mills & Lollo Darin-Ericson

The Monterrey Consensus: consolidate globalisation at the expense of women / 68

By Marina Fe B. Durano

Women push their development demands on the financing front / 72

By June Zeitlin & Nadia Johnson

The European Union's contribution to the Millennium Development Goals / 76

By Simon Stocker

A summit against intolerance / 78

By Atila Roque

COUNTRY REPORTS

Argentina

The eruption of a model / 82

Bahrain

Beginning to open / 84

Bangladesh

Birds in a larger cage / 86

Bolivia

The gap between two countries grows / 88

Brazil

At the mercy of the "sentiment of the market" / 90

Bulgaria

The price of being agreeable to the IMF / 92

Cambodia

Towards assimilation into the world economy / 94

Canada

The road from Monterrey: a caution from Canada / 96

Chile

Growth without equity / 98

Colombia

Adjustment produces redistribution that favours the financial sector / 100

Costa Rica

The challenge of "starting two motors" / 102

El Salvador

Thanks to family remittances / 104

Germany

Antipoverty rhetoric: more Programme than Action / 106

Guatemala

Structural obstacles at a time of crisis / 108

Honduras

New government, old problems / 110

India

Growth without development: rhetoric and deprivation / 112

Indonesia

Searching for the new Indonesia / 114

Iraq

Few hopes / 116

Italy

New welfare, new gaps / 118

Kazakhstan

Everyday life is another question / 120

Kenya

Land poverty / 122

Korea
Vigilant civil society / 124

Lebanon
The disappointing “growth” decade / 126

Malaysia
The lack of vision of the National Vision Policy / 128

Mexico
Priorities of the Vicente Fox government / 130

Morocco
The results of neo-liberal guidelines / 132

Nepal
Private capital not responsible for poverty / 134

Netherlands
A rich society, a poor welfare state / 136

Nigeria
The economy in a coma / 138

Palestine
A humanitarian crisis / 140

Paraguay
Between stagnation and inequity / 142

Peru
Change or poverty: that’s the question / 144

Philippines
Can we pick up the pieces? / 146

Senegal
Difficulties to be overcome / 148

South Africa
The end of apartheid was not the end of poverty / 150

Spain
On stage without a script / 152

Sri Lanka
A hard time / 154

Sudan
Impacts of liberalisation / 156

Suriname
Vulnerable and volatile / 158

Switzerland
The need to control financial capital / 160

Tanzania
The damage of liberalisation and the dead-end of debt / 162

Thailand
In the hands of transnational capital and free trade / 164

Uganda
A fascinating example of successful liberalisation? / 166

United Kingdom
Appalling legacy of poverty and inequality / 168

United States
Welfare begins to end as recession grows / 170

Uruguay
The fantasy of “good housekeeping” / 172

Viet Nam
Social development is a priority / 174

Zambia
Grand poverty and corruption / 176

Sources and resources / 178

TABLES AND CHARTS OF THE COUNTRY REPORTS

Bolivia Table 1: Foreign Direct Investment
Table 2: Tax income from hydrocarbons in relation to total tax and current income 1999-2000

Brazil Table 1: Implementation of budgetary programmes in 2001

Cambodia Table 1: GDP growth in the last decade
Table 2: GDP, population and labour force 1999-2000
Table 3: Human Poverty Index (HPI) ranking with ASEAN neighbours
Table 4: Literacy rates among ASEAN neighbours

Colombia Table 1: National Government Expenditure 1991-2000: Share of Spending
Table 2: Distribution of the National Expenditure Budget 2002
Table 3: Indicators of poverty and inequality (1995-2000)

Costa Rica Table 1: Exporting companies
Chart 1: Percentage of exports by size of companies

India Table 1: Main macroeconomic indicators
Table 2: Expenditure of central and state governments on health

Kenya Table 1: Gender Development Index for Kenya and its provinces

Lebanon Table 1: Selected key indicators 1992 – 2001
Table 2: Imports and exports 1992-2001

Mexico Table 1: Foreign and domestic debt indicators

Nepal Table 1: Population below the poverty line
Table 2: Land ownership in Nepal

Paraguay Table 1: Underemployment rates in Paraguay

Philippines Table 1: Labour and employment
Table 2: Poverty incidence 1961 to 2000

Senegal Table 1: Senegal's debt

Sudan Table 1: Health facilities by region per 100,000 people
Table 2: Ten Leading Causes of Death
Table 3: Economic participation rate by sex in Northern Sudan

Uruguay Table 1: Exclusion from Social Security, in thousands of persons, for urban populations in localities over 5,000 people

Vietnam Table 1: Some key proposed development targets 2000 – 2010
Table 2: Income Gini coefficient between regions in Vietnam
Table 3: Poverty levels: geographical and economic characteristics
Table 4: Gender gap